Abstracts

Bioderma Kids, CeraVe Baby, and Baby Dove are examples of mother and child products. Typically, the parent brand has an established name in the adult space, and the same company launches a child-friendly version. For many, this seems insignificant, and not a major trend. However, this is a departure from the usual marketing of brands that have been in the business for decades. For example, several niche brands concentrate on marketing their products as gentle enough for children. These brands se...
