Abstracts

Baby and child specific products continued to see positive growth in constant value terms in 2022, albeit at a slightly slower rate than the previous year. As such, the category was relatively impervious to price hikes caused by rising inflation, as Swedish parents continued to prioritise purchases for their children. However, the birth rate in the country fell in 2022, which restricted growth to some extent. This is not a new phenomenon, with the number of babies born in Sweden having been in d...
