Abstracts

As consumers could finally travel, and return to workplaces and educational establishments, bags and luggage has continued on the recovery path that started in 2022. Despite a higher cost of living, which brought some expected conservativeness to German spending at the end of 2022 and into 2023, the second half of the year pointed towards a cautious revival in consumer confidence, as German consumers looked forward to their travels. Bag sales have not fully recovered to pre-pandemic levels, but...
