Abstracts

Tourism was one of the industries that was significantly impacted by COVID-19, as border restrictions were tightened globally. Many consumers also refrained from taking domestic trips in the first phase of the pandemic. There were multiple forms of government support to boost the tourism industry from 2020 to 2023, but support was limited to domestic trips. People had to wait until May 2023 for the country to really open up from COVID-19. Until then, not only legal and political policies prevent...
