Abstracts

Growth in sales of bags and luggage is strong in 2022 in line with the easing of pandemic-related restrictions – in particular, the reopening of international borders and the return of both overseas and domestic travel. Now that consumers can travel freely they have begun to purchase new luggage items. This marks a significant development following 2021, which was plagued by waves of COVID-19 and thus further closures of non-essential stores, delayed returns to schools and offices and, in Januar...
