Abstracts

Some manufacturers started selling their bags and luggage at large discounts in 2021 in order to get rid of their old inventory that had built up during the pandemic. There have also been several sales activities like buy-now-pay-later offers which have helped to stimulate demand in 2022. However, manufacturers did not expect such high demand in response to these offers and some players actually ran out of inventory in 2022 which prevented the category from seeing more significant growth. This w...
