Abstracts

Owing to a sharp decline in travel due to the pandemic, retail volume and current value sales of luggage in Singapore fell drastically in 2020, by nearly 50%. This was against the backdrop of more than an 85% decline in the number of outbound departures in Singapore, according to Euromonitor International Travel 2024. This was followed by a continued double-digit decline in value sales of luggage in 2021, even though luggage manufacturers and retailers alike held massive discounting and promotio...
