Abstracts

Consumers' disposal incomes in 2022 are being drastically changed by unprecedented economic conditions in South Africa. The impact of rising inflation on food, electricity, and fuel is forcing local consumers to reduce purchases of perceived non-essential items such as luggage as they focus on necessities. As luggage is not frequently purchased, demand is continuing to decline in 2022. Despite the reopening of international borders, it has not led to a surge in sales. Most consumers who are trav...
