Abstracts

Bags and luggage was negatively impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020 as current value and volume sales plummeted. Although in 2021, bags and luggage will return to growth, a full recovery is not expected, and current value and volume sales will be nowhere near what they were prior to the pandemic. The pandemic will continue throughout 2021, alongside all of the negative consequences which will prevent a full recovery from taking place. For example, the economic repercussions of the pandemic...
