Abstracts

The United Arab Emirates has been at the forefront of the travel industry's recovery, and in 2023, there has been a significant development: the complete resurgence of international travel. This resurgence has led to increasing demand for luggage. While international travel worldwide is expected to return to pre-pandemic levels, Dubai achieved this milestone in 2021, becoming one of the first cities to bounce back after the emergence of COVID-19. While luxury luggage brands continue to experienc...
