Abstracts

This report shows the landscape of baked goods in the Middle East and Africa and highlights the key growth drivers. This category saw marginal growth driven by product innovation, rising awareness of healthy living. Manufacturers navigate difficult trading environments by offering value for money and regular promotions to maintain their volume sales. MEA has ample potential for growth in the forthcoming years as this category combines traditional products with the latest trends.

Euromonitor International's Baked Goods in Middle East and Africa global briefing offers an insight into the size and shape of the Packaged Food market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends and identifies the leading companies and brands. It also offers strategic analysis on driving packaged food industry trends like health and wellness, premiumisation, convenience and value-for-money and how those trends influence factors like new product developments, packaging innovations, retail distribution and retail pricing both historically and into the future.

Product coverage: Cooking Ingredients and Meals, Dairy Products and Alternatives, Snacks, Staple Foods.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
