Abstracts

With close to 140 million tonnes, baked goods is the second largest packaged food category following dairy. However, growth remains lacklustre posing both opportunities and threats for manufacturers. While the biggest revenue gains are likely to be made from bread, cakes, pastries and frozen baked goods lend themselves well to profit expansion. This briefing identifies key category and geography opportunities in baked goods after providing the main reasons behind the competitive landscape.

Euromonitor International's Baked Goods: Opportunities and Threats in a Consolidating Market global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Packaged Food market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends and identifies the leading companies and brands. It also offers strategic analysis on driving packaged food industry trends like health and wellness, premiumisation, convenience and value-for-money and how those trends influence factors like new product developments, packaging innovations, retail distribution and retail pricing both historically and into the future.

Product coverage: Baby Food, Baked Goods, Biscuits and Snack Bars, Breakfast Cereals, Confectionery, Dairy, Ice Cream and Frozen Desserts, Oils and Fats, Processed Fruit and Vegetables, Processed Meat and Seafood, Ready Meals, Rice, Pasta and Noodles, Sauces, Dressings and Condiments, Soup, Spreads, Sweet and Savoury Snacks.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
