Abstracts

Customisation and monogramming have become more popular in bags and luggage as consumers look for individualised products to express their style. Country Road launched custom monogramming in 2016 on its tote bags, with the option of up to three initials in a range of six colours. Australian custom bags company Mon Purse offers handmade European handbags with consumers able to customise the shape, leather, colour, interior lining, monogram and other options. The company, which was launched in Aus...
