Abstracts

Bank of Baroda continues to expand its delivery channels to enable consumers to do their banking without visiting a branch. It also plans to expand its special ATMs named as e-lobby, which besides cash withdrawal facilitates a customer to make a deposit through cash or cheque, update a passbook and undertake a range of other transactions. In November 2013, the bank operated 30 e-lobbies and is planning to increase them to 50 during 2014.
