Abstracts

Bath and shower continued to grow in 2019, driven by body wash/shower gel, liquid soap and intimate washes, with bar soap recording stagnating sales. However, bar soap and, in particular, liquid soap have seen sales driven by frequent handwashing among consumers in 2020 due to Coronavirus (COVID-19). While liquid soap, body wash/shower gel and intimate washes, will continue driving growth in the remainder of the forecast period, bar soap will see declining annual sales from 2021.
