Abstracts

With the easing of pandemic restrictions, there remained heightened attention towards personal care and items such as bath and shower products. However, hoarding habits from the pandemic period led to continued stockpiles of such products, which contributed to current value decline for bath and shower in China in 2023. In particular, liquid soap and hand sanitisers both experienced double-digit current value growth in 2022 due to the impact of the pandemic, as there was a significant need for co...
