Abstracts

In 2023, the cost of living remained high in the Dominican Republic driving consumers towards more affordable options in bath and shower. Sales of bar soap picked up considerably as these formats are still considered a more economical alternative to hand and body wash in liquid format. Given the multifunctionality of bar soap, it is sometimes used by low-income groups as a substitute for shampoo and this further supported sales. Dove and Kinder both benefited from this switch back to bar soap, r...
