Abstracts

In 2023, bath and shower in Taiwan recorded positive retail value growth, while retail volume sales declined in unessential areas during rising inflation. This included bath additives and body powder. Due to their essential nature and frequent use, many consumers are more price-conscious when choosing bath and shower products, with many viewing the products as simply cleaning rather than an experience. As such, many consumers would rather pay more for products that focus on hair or the face than...
