Abstracts

Demand for bath and shower products is stable in Uzbekistan, as such products are incorporated as an essential part of consumers' daily hygiene. Indeed, health-related and personal hygiene routines were enhanced by the era of the COVID-19 pandemic, as consumers sought to avoid the virus through more frequent cleaning and washing of themselves and their homes. That said, trends for antibacterial products, such as seen with hand sanitisers which were popular during the pandemic, have since waned i...
