Abstracts

Overall, beauty and personal care continued to recover from the effects of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) crisis. Beauty and personal care was shaped by the return of the demand for most types of beauty and personal care, in particular for products that suffered due to the pandemic. These included colour cosmetics, fragrances, sun care, deodorants and men's grooming. As COVID-19 regulations were relaxed and the country emerged out of the pandemic, consumers spent less time at home and resumed social...
