Abstracts

Beauty and personal care continued to enjoy solid growth in 2022 as the post COVID-19 recovery brought consumers back into retail stores and nurtured most categories back to pre-pandemic sales levels. Soaring inflation impacted unit prices with all categories responding to the increase in costs by elevating price, resulting in a surge in current value growth. The war in Ukraine has contributed to supply chain disruptions and raised production costs in 2022. However, rising food and energy costs...
