Abstracts

Chile experienced a remarkable year for consumer goods in 2021, not only within beauty and personal care, but in retail as a whole, registering unprecedented growth rates. The availability of high liquidity, due to permission to make a number of 10% withdrawals from pension funds and government assistance, combined with the easing of COVID-19 restrictions in the country, allowed consumers to return to their pre-pandemic routines, resulting in double-digit value growth across most beauty and pers...
