Abstracts

In 2023, Ireland's beauty and personal care landscape was influenced by high inflation rates, with economic uncertainty shaping consumer spending. Consumers focused on essential items in response to declining disposable incomes, leading to a fall in retail volume in areas such as body moisturisers, toners, mouth fresheners and pre-shave. Areas considered essentials, such as oral, hair, and sun care continued to showcase a positive performance. Despite this, many consumers traded down in essentia...
