Abstracts

The beauty and personal care market remained relatively stable in Israel in 2023. While there were no dramatic upheavals, the market felt the impact of the rising cost of living, with a stronger shift towards mass products in most categories. In addition, larger sizes of products were launched, as local consumers became increasingly budget conscious and interested in economising. The growing interest in combination products in areas such as skin care and sun care was also supported by the demand...
