Abstracts

Beauty and personal care in Italy saw mid-single-digit growth in current value terms in 2022. It was an important year for Italy, with the situation shifting significantly in terms of the easing of restrictions linked to COVID-19. March saw the end of the state of health emergency, while May witnessed the lifting of the obligation to wear face masks in most indoor public places for the first time since the start of the pandemic (in 2021 they were only not required outdoors in the second half of...
