Abstracts

Beauty and personal care in Norway is experiencing a sustained period of growth, fuelled by a continuation of pandemic-era spending habits. While a correction was anticipated in 2022 following the initial boom, it materialised as relatively modest compared to the significant gains witnessed during the pandemic. This trend translated into strong value sales performance across most categories in 2023. As a result, beauty and personal care in Norway is setting new records, suggesting that the eleva...
