Abstracts

2022 was a landmark year for Romania's beauty and personal care market as, by the end of the year, the majority of categories had recovered from the sales declines recorded at the peak of the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020. One of the most important factors underpinning this sales recovery is the removal and lifting of all COVID-19 control measures and social distancing restrictions, including limitations on domestic travel, the closure of the country's borders and restrictions on the ability of cust...
