Abstracts

Beauty and personal care recorded a decline of 3% in 2020, compared to growth of 2% in 2019. This negative performance was due to the outbreak of COVID-19 in the country, with a lockdown installed at the end of March to counteract the spread of the virus. During this time, consumers were encouraged to stay at home as much as possible, with many working from home, while all non-essential stores, including beauty specialist retailers and hair salons, were closed for the months of April and May.
