Abstracts

Beauty and personal care products experienced further moderate value growth in the Swiss market in 2022 as more consumers resumed regular (similar to pre-COVID-19) lifestyles and shopping and purchasing behaviours. They worked and spent more time away from home, and increasingly engaged in physical activities. More time spent outdoors boosted demand for sun protection, while engaging in physical activity and going to the gym increased interest in deodorants. At the same time, spending time with...
