Abstracts

After the overall decline in beauty and personal care retail volume sales in 2020, in the wake of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, the industry started to see a rebound in demand in 2021 and healthy growth in 2022. This performance was underpinned by the resumption of work and social norms and out-of-home lifestyles in general, supported by the permanent reopening of offline stores and development and growth of e-commerce. Moreover, after political peace was established with Saudi Arabia and...
