Abstracts

When the pandemic first arrived in Turkey in 2020 it resulted in bath and shower recording very strong growth in its packaging unit volumes thanks to an increase in demand for personal hygiene and self-care products. Bath and shower has since continued to record more-than-healthy annual growth rates, including in 2022, with this also being driven by ongoing urbanisation and changing lifestyles, the introduction of a more diverse range of bath and shower products, the influence of global beauty t...
