Abstracts

COVID-19 affected better for you packaged food product areas differently in retail volume terms in 2020. There was a sharp decline in reduced fat dairy sales during the lockdown. As consumers prioritised essential food items in their grocery purchases, they often left more expensive variants such as reduced fat yoghurt, butter and cream out. On the contrary, other product areas benefited from the lockdown, such as reduced sugar spreads. Work from home and school closures led families to have mea...
