Abstracts

In general, the situation that has emerged in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic has had a positive impact on the performance of sauces, dressing and condiments in Indonesia, with the government-mandated large-scale social distancing measures that were imposed upon the population of Indonesia during 2020 and the first half of 2021 giving consumers far more incentive to purchase sauces, dressings and condiments. The primary factor to take into consideration here is that the strict approach taken t...
