Abstracts

BFY packaged food has been performing well in Poland, especially since the outbreak of COVID-19, as the health and wellness trend is gathering further pace, with more consumers now paying attention to their overall health. This is leading to a growing demand for reduced sugar products, further encouraged by the introduction of the sugar tax in 2021. While this new legislation only currently applies to drinks, it has raised consumer awareness of the harm of excessive sugar, which is boosting the...
