Abstracts

Interest in BFY packaged food continued to grow in 2020. This was driven by the general health and wellness trend, and accelerated by even more consumers paying closer attention to their health in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic. Demand grew for fresh and natural food, and for products with reduced levels of sugar. The closure of foodservice outlets between the middle of March and start of September did not affect volume sales of BFY packaged food, as it is generally only sold in retail. Consu...
