Abstracts

In 2020 and early 2021, sales of BFY packaged food particularly benefited from the lockdown restrictions and the increase in eating occasions at home. However, from the second quarter of 2021 onwards, the lockdown restrictions were gradually lifted, and consumers started spending more time outside of the home, leading to a reduction in demand for packaged food through the retail channel, which in turn impacted BFY packaged food categories. Nevertheless, when compared with the pre-pandemic level,...
