Abstracts

Turkish-style coffee has historically predominated through much of Eastern Europe and the Middle East, and represents roughly a sixth of all global coffee sales. Globalised coffee trends are making inroads into the region, leading to a shift in coffee-drinking habits. While in some areas, international trends are pushing traditional methods to the margins, in others, the challenge has led to innovation and renewed interest in Turkish-style methods.

Euromonitor International's Between Tradition and Globalisation: Turkish-style Coffee global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Hot Drinks market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, packaging innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success. The analysis can focus on both retail and foodservice.

Product coverage: Coffee, Other Hot Drinks, Tea.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
