Abstracts

Belgian consumers are increasingly showing a hybrid purchasing behaviour in biscuits and snack bars. On the one hand, they are looking for 'smart deals', products and retail outlets with an attractive price/quality ratio. On the other hand, they are increasingly willing to spend more on indulgent new products that may cost quite a bit more, leading to polarisation of the product offer in the category during 2015. Another trend was the growing range of biscuits and snack bars on offer within...
