Abstracts

The biscuits and snack bars category grew slightly faster in 2015 than was the case over the review period, rising by 14% in 2015 compared to a CAGR of 13% in the review period. Its growth stemmed from the wide range of brands available in Egypt. The large number of brands produced locally means that prices are affordable, which in turn makes these products an attractive snack for consumers in all income brackets. Products in the biscuits category in particular tend to have extensive...
