Abstracts

The IEPS tax – Impuesto Especial Sobre Produccion y Servicios (Special Tax on Production and Services) – which was introduced in January 2014, continued to impose an 8% rate on high-calorie foods, which are considered to be those products with a calorie content of 275kcal or more per each 100g serving. Under that parameter, biscuits and several snack bars are considered to be high-calorie products and are therefore taxed under the IEPS. This price increase, along with the negative image created...
