Abstracts

Biscuits and snack bars saw a substantial decline in sales in 2015. There were many reasons for this decline. These included lifestyle changes for many consumers. There is a new attitude towards health for a large group of consumers, and within this, carbohydrates and gluten are avoided. This change is also why certain categories are doing better than others. Healthy biscuits with more grains and fibre, for instance, are doing relatively well, as consumers are not only interested in indulgence...
