Abstracts

Biscuits and snack bars grew strongly in Nigeria in 2015 due to strong population growth, with particular growth among the younger demographics. The general low pricing of brands in a country of low incomes, together with wider availability of higher-priced offerings as the middle class population also increased and desire for convenience among time-stressed urban consumers demanding on-the-go snacks all supported growth in 2015. The population aged 0-14 has grown by an annual average of 2%...
