Abstracts

Biscuits and snack bars reached sales of €237 million in 2015. With the economic climate showing some progress, consumer confidence began to improve. While value sales of biscuits and snack bars remained relatively flat due to a slight decline in average unit prices, volume sales recorded 1% growth during the year. Such stagnation clearly reflected the prominent role of promotions and price discounts in the biscuits and snack bars category in 2015, which partly offset the positive impact of new...
