Abstracts

Following its recent acquisition of Sodilac and Terra Lacta and its ongoing development in France, Bongrain currently has no need to worry about its outlook. However, the company must still face numerous challenges such as the rising pressure coming on its margins due to ongoing increases in raw material prices amidst an uncertain economic environment, the maturity of demand for cheese in France and the company's still low levels of activity outside of Western Europe, with only 38.5% of its...
