Abstracts

In 2022, Austrian consumers were still very uncertain as a result of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. They tended to err on the side of caution, booking complete travel packages via travel agencies. Otherwise, they preferred to book hotels directly, in order to take advantage of expert advice, as well as other services, such as insurance and extended cancellation options. But by 2023, these more cautious booking preferences of Austrian consumers appeared to have been put into perspective. In...
