Abstracts

Flexible packages (travel packages with flexible dates), which were a solution to provide relief for players during the pandemic, have lost strength as they have turned out to be a “bargain that turned expensive” for both players and customers. In addition, some consumers did not have a clear understanding of what “flexible reservation” meant and simply accepted it as a way to pay less with the product conditions when they decided to travel. Furthermore, one of the country's largest online trave...
