Abstracts

Booking services grew significantly in 2022 and have continued to grow, although to a lesser extent, in 2023. The category has yet to reach the level of sales seen immediately prior to the COVID-19 crisis, although it is close to doing so. Growth has been due to the greater willingness of tourists to turn to travel agencies, both offline and online, to organise, reserve and even pay for their trips, especially for vacations or leisure as they look to enjoy special moments and places. This greate...

BOOKING IN PERU

KEY DATA FINDINGS

2023 DEVELOPMENTS

Booking achieves significant recovery, with greater performance of online intermediaries due to higher speed, ease of use and access to promotions

Social upheaval and climate problems have more notable impact on travel agencies focused on incoming and domestic tourism than those focused on travel abroad

PROSPECTS AND OPPORTUNITIES

Reinforcement of personalised advice, immediate assistance in unforeseen events and loyalty programmes by big players

Offline intermediaries are competitive in lodging prices due to strong negotiation with hotels, but must adapt to changes in airline booking system and have potential in cruise tourism
