Abstracts

Even bottled water sales are falling into a slump in off-trade volume terms in 2023, although this is expected to be remedied over the coming years as the category inches its way back into small, expected, positive growth. The same cross-category impacts of inflationary pressures are relevant here, along with the maturity of bottled water in Italy. Indeed, per capita consumption is already quite high at 175 litres per person, and the inflation-related price increases are pushing consumers to opt...
