Abstracts

Sales of bottled water suffered heavy losses in retail volume terms in 2022 as a result of Russia's invasion of Ukraine, with a huge section of the population fleeing the country in search of safety. Nonetheless, bottled water saw a more modest decline in retail volume terms compared to most other categories of soft drinks. There was increased demand for bottled water among those consumers who remained, especially still water in larger bottles, with this being driven by concerns around electrici...
