Abstracts

The path to Brexit has not been smooth. Now with only weeks left until the UK's official withdrawal from the EU, huge uncertainty remains about the UK's future relationship with Europe. The threat of a no-deal Brexit is real as the UK government fails to break gridlock and the potential for the UK to crash out without a deal. The European Commission has guaranteed that flights will continue even in the case of a no-deal Brexit, however, concerns remain about the removal of frictionless travel.
